Media Advisory

For Immediate Release Contact:
March 4th, 2019

Chief Mark Saloio
Detective Max Sherman

The Tisbury Police Department will be holding a Citizens' Police Academy on April 4th, 11th, 25th, May 2nd, and May 9th. Tisbury Police Department staff, with assistance from other Island Public Safety Agencies will provide a quality training and orientation experience for residents of our community. Residents are encouraged to sign up for this no charge program to learn more about the work members of the Tisbury Police Department perform each day.

The class, organized and scheduled by Detective Max Sherman, will teach residents various aspects of criminal, constitutional and motor vehicle laws, as well as familiarize participants with some of the policies, responsibilities and obligations of police department members within their community. It is open to resident ages 18 years or older. Class participants will also be provided an opportunity to take part in a police ride along as part of the program.

Any resident wishing to participate in this program should contact:

Detective Max Sherman at 508-696-4240
