In May of 2021, the residents of Tisbury approved a plastic bottle ban. This bylaw states that it shall be unlawful to sell or distribute non-carbonated unflavored water, or soft drinks in plastic (including polyethylene terephthalate – PET) bottles of less than 34 ounces. "Soft drink" means any beverage containing carbonated water, a sweetener (including fruit juice) and/or a flavoring.

I certify that my establishment is in compliance with this bylaw, and I understand my compliance will be verified during my annual inspection.

I certify that in the past year no changes have been made to the floor plan, operational hours and/or ownership structure of the business without notifying all applicable Licensing Authorities in accordance with Town regulations and Bylaws.
