Manager's team and the Selection Committee members for their efforts during this process. Ms Sawyer and Ms Oppen added comments about the selection committee's thoroughness in going through the process. They pointed out that the ranking process as a vehicle for the town's contract negotiation process.

Mr. Custer presented the Selection Committee's rankings of the qualified applicants for Construction Manager At Risk:

- #1. WT Rich Company
- #2. Commodore Builders
- #3. J & J Contractors and O & G Industries, a joint venture

Selection Committee members agreed that there were several factors that influenced their choice of WT Rich as their first choice, including, but not limited to: a 3-year post-construction support program; an impressive track record for school projects; a cultural fit for the town; their presentation was impressive as to their professional attention to and of understanding the town and the unique aspects and logistics of the project.
